

CORN IS AMAZING

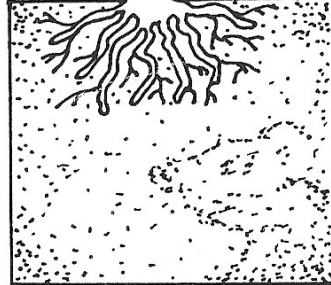

Corn kernels are planted in the soil 1 inch deep, 10 inches apart.

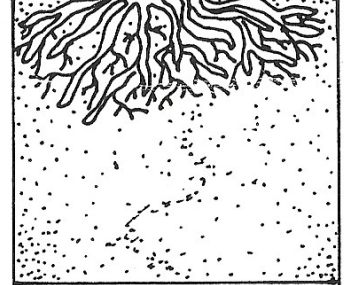

If the soil is wet and warm the kernel will sprout.

The first tiny leaf grows toward the sun which turns it green.

Strong, shallow roots grow to get moisture from just beneath the surface.

Indian corn that is planted in May will be ready to harvest in October.